BFF/SENIOR CENTER, we are still questioning if we can serve wine at the festival, we will secure the temporary liquor license and Cathy Lasser will speak with Ellen at the Senior Center to see how she feels about serving wine. Chris said that the senior center has 90 folding chairs, we are going to rent 20-25 chairs for the festival. Dates: March 26, 27, 28 and 29. Thursday, March 26th will be a trial run and the seniors will be invited free of charge. We will not be serving refreshments, but they can arrange to have their own set up. Ray wants to start the process of securing films for the festival and Ellen has a blank license to show films. Ray will look into this and report at our next meeting. Ray will also look into doing another film workshop and will check with JC Barone. ART SHOWS AT TOWN HALL: Ray was in touch with Royal Scott who is a Brookfield resident and currently has a show in Bethel, Daily Fare at 178 Greenwood Ave and Molten Java at 137 Greenwood Ave. He would like to do a show at the town hall and we would have to get back to him with a date.
